

Blessed Self, Dear Bhaktas and Friends,

Again the beautiful and holy days of the Christmas season have come. It is a time to pray and ask for Divine Grace for the whole world, that all living beings shall live in peace, harmony and happiness. We pray that no living being should suffer and that all shall feel at home on our beautiful planet Earth. We also pray that God will grant us understanding, love and harmony, that no more fighting and wars take place. We are all brothers and sisters, children of the One God.

Many thanks to all who have supported our humanitarian projects; with particular thanks for the donations for the Gyan Putra project, whereby children from needy families receive the possibility to attend school and study; for the Sri Madhavananda Austria Hospital that provides ambulance service and emergency help; as well as for the Gaushalas, that grant shelter for sick and abandoned animals.

In the name of worldwide Yoga in Daily Life I wish you a blessed Christmas and a healthy, happy and prosperous New Year!

With the blessing of Sri Alakhpuriji Siddha Peeth Parampara,

Yours,

Vishwaguruji
